A conference was held on 13 February 1950 on the occasion of the activation of the Factory Police in Schwerin industrial plants at the Mecklenburg Ministry of Economics in Schwerin. The competency of the Soviet Zone German Police was under discussion. The following was laid down:

1. Persons serving with the Factory Police must be completely fit for service. (Disabled persons had previously been accepted.).
2. SPD (German Socialist Unity Party) members who were members of the Nazi Party or any of its affiliated organizations must resign from the Factory Police at once.
3. The Factory Police will be armed with pistols and trained by the Soviet Zone German police. Wachtmeisters of the Soviet Zone German police are to act as leaders of the Factory Police.
